What would a Library be without Authors?

Seacoast Books & Authors coming soon!

The Friends' Board had an opportunity to sit with a group of dedicated Friends volunteers at the Annual Meeting and ask them their likes, dislikes, and wishes for the library and the Friends organization.

. One of the points raised was an interest in more adult activities, specifically those that involve writings from local authors and/or on local topics.

With that in mind, the Board is developing an author series that will kick off soon! Look for more details in upcoming emails!
